VOLUNTEER RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES & DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

As a Volunteer with the Everett Gospel Mission, you have the Right to:

- Be provided the training you need to succeed in your volunteer position.
- A safe and comfortable environment at the Mission.
- Give feedback in the form of an evaluation.
- Change or terminate your volunteer activity if you feel that it is not a fit for you.

As a Volunteer with the Everett Gospel Mission, you have the Responsibility to:

- Dress modestly and appropriately. Please refrain from wearing tank tops, mid-drift tops, shorts, and any other clothing that is tight, low-cut, or has lewd or indecent imprints. If you are dressed inappropriately, you may be asked to reschedule your activity.
- Keep all client information absolutely confidential. Be wise and follow the guidelines below:
 - Give money to NO ONE.
 - Do not give rides to anyone.
 - Do not give personal information to clients.
 - Never be alone with anyone of the opposite gender.
 - Do not leave personal belongings unattended.
 - Do not make any decisions for the clients; refer them to an EGM staff member if they need assistance.
- Take any problems, criticisms, or suggestions to Jonathan Anderson, the Volunteer Coordinator at: (425) 740-2506.

Discontinuance of Volunteer Services:

I understand that the Everett Gospel Mission has the right to discontinue my services as a volunteer as a result of: (a) a failure to comply with volunteer responsibilities; (b) unsatisfactory attitude, work, or appearance; (c) or any other circumstances which would make my continued service as a volunteer contrary to the best interest of the organization.

I have read each of the above rights and responsibilities, and agree to abide by each of them.
