- Coordinate the integration of social services through case management with external service organizations.
- Promote effective and efficient utilization of local housing, legal, mental health and other agencies to assist the resident to remove barriers to stabilization.
- Mobilizes resources and connects with guest, as needed, to achieve outlined goals.
- Collaborates with the case management staff in the development and execution of organizational goals and guest action plans.
- Documents pertinent actions, conversations, and events on each guest's record that facilitates progress toward goal attainment.
- Participates in the development and implementation of guest care policies and protocols to provide clear expectations of both staff and guests.
- Maintains healthy boundaries with guests and staff while serving high need individuals in crisis and poverty.
- Responsible for having an understanding and working knowledge of the NASW Standards for Social Work Case Management.
- Integrates current best practices in social work and rescue ministries into case management activities.
- Participates in general operations of EGM as a vital member of the team and attends organizational functions as requested by supervisor.

PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS

- Enjoys a fluid and changing environment.
- Loves to learn.
- Has a positive and constructive sense of humor with the ability to laugh at herself/himself and the wisdom to use humor to ease the tension of rescue work.
- Is action oriented and energized by those things he/she sees as challenging.
- Is warm, pleasant, and gracious.
- Fosters open dialogue.
- Sees failure as an opportunity to learn and grow.
- Emotionally mature and resilient; capable of handling pressure.
- A strong sense of professional ethics and personal stewardship of EGM's resources.

KNOWLEDGE/EXPERIENCE

- Has worked effectively with multiple races, nationalities, cultures, disabilities, ages, and genders.

SKILLS, ABILITIES, AND SPECIAL TALENTS/GIFTS

- Outstanding written and verbal communication skills.
- Self-motivated authentic team player who is flexible, proactive, and able to interact positively with all levels of our organization.
- Able to maintain high outputs without sacrificing quality and accuracy.
- Steps up to conflicts, seeing them as opportunities.
- An understanding of poverty and the challenges presented when integrating people from varied socio-economic cultures.
